

FRIDAY
27 AUGUST

It has been a featured event since we have exclusive use of it and restaurant, we Voted the UK's best bar at Alma De Cuba. Kicks off again in grand style at midday it all becomes a mad party, humungous street party, Liverpool City Council, it is absolutely FREE!

It's then back to Liverpool Philharmonic Hall for our final concert, and what a gig it promises to be. The Beatles Variety Show, something for everybody again spanning the whole spectrum of their career.

SATURDAY
28 AUGUST

Saturday morning is just your only free time during the whole week. A good time to visit the Beatles Story Museum or indeed book a Magical Mystery Tour, or maybe to... sleep! Another option would be the Annual Beatles Shop Auction at LIPA (ring 0151 236 8066 for details).

Because at midday it all becomes a mad party, humungous street party, Liverpool City Council, it is absolutely FREE!

SUNDAY
29 AUGUST

The Beatles may be our religion but we will be moving the party from Church to a Cathedral. The Anglican Cathedral to be exact, where Paul failed an audition as a chorboy! Paul has returned on many occasions staging The Gracioso and Cor Meum in this absolutely magnificent Hall where the amazing Overtures will host their only performance this year, but what a setting. This is probably the most ambitious problem of which band to see and where! All bands will be playing at the Adelphi on the Sunday on one of the four stages, which makes everything so much easier.

MONDAY
30 AUGUST

is the most eagerly awaited event in Festival Street Mathew Street. It surely will be an historic occasion – and a way to bring the curtain down on 2010. What are you waiting for? Don't think what if gigs for six weeks!

Although he lives in the States, we are thrilled to welcome him back – his first UK tour in 20 years!

TUESDAY
31 AUGUST

After possibly the first step-in for a week, it is but a leisurely stroll to the Cavern Club for the final day of Beatle Week. Over 30 bands will play at the Cavern and the Cavern Pub from 2pm until midnight, but the highlight will be Billy J. Kramer. Billy returns to the Cavern, where he was discovered by Brian Epstein in 1962. As well as having access to many Beatles' songs, he has been described as one of the most mid-1960s rockers of the package, on the invitation. He was known more as a crooner than a rocker and recorded mainly mid-tempo numbers. He left us a collection of catchy pop songs, still popular today.

THURSDAY
26 AUGUST

Live music continues throughout the day and night at the Cavern Pub, of course, and the two stages across the road at the Cavern Club. However, the highlight of the day will be a Warm Lennon Liverpool Welcome on the Sunday and Monday. The whole week kicks off in style with an evening of free live Beatles music at The Cavern Club.

More contemporary music, such as Amy Winehouse and Arctic Monkeys is represented at The Mathew Street Festival on the Sunday and Monday. The whole week kicks off in style with an evening of free live Beatles music at The Cavern Club.

WEDNESDAY
25 AUGUST

What is Beatle Week? It is played as the Beatles. Indeed, when they were drummer as the Silver Beatles, Alma De Cuba that everybody was really singing about. An old converted church, the Alma De Cuba that everybody was really singing about. An old converted church, the Alma De Cuba that everybody was really singing about.
